

IGNITING PRAYER'S PASSION & POWER IN US

PROCLAMATION: SEARCHING FOR A METHOD

Rev. Dr. Walter M. Brown, Jr.

PASTOR, BETHANY MINISTRIES & SENIOR PASTOR, KINGDOM MINDED ASSOCIATION OF CHURCHES

- Once we have dedicated ourselves to committed and consecrated prayer, we must then give attention to developing a personal style or method of proclamation.
- After reading Chapter Three, discuss your personal style for proclamation. (Remember, although attention is given to public proclamation, there are also styles in witnessing one-on-one!)

💡 Consider how your method for proclamation is affected by the following passage: “And he gave some, apostles; and some, prophets; and some, evangelists; and some, pastors and teachers.” Eph 4:11

Based on “Discovering the God of the Proclamation,” determine to be conscious of God’s presence in your public and private proclamations. List ways in which you can do this.

- ❖ Is your method of proclamation important to you?
- ❖ Do you use more than one method?
- ❖ Do you purposely allow time to listen to God during public and private proclamations?
- ❖ Are you called to serve in more than one calling: Apostle, prophet, teacher, etc?
- ❖ Have you ever failed to heed the “voice of God” during public or private proclamation? How? Why? Result?
